COMMENTS:

--Professor Ahmad is an excellent professor and I would take a class with him again if offered.

-- He was very enthusiastic and tried his best to make the class work on Zoom, although, it would've been a lot better if we had in-person classes.

--I thought Professor Ahmad did a great job despite the challenges of teaching virtually. He was very easy to reach outside of class and did a great job of keeping the structure of class similar to what we experienced with Professor Watson.

--The virtual aspect of the class slightly hindered Professor Ahmad's ability to connect with students. I personally struggle with learning content virtually.

--Very energetic and competent in the course material. Even though he only had the last four weeks, and it was over Zoom, he did an excellent job of explaining everything and making sure we understood everything. He also made himself available and was very helpful during labs!

Kudos!

--Professor Ahmad did a great job subbing in for Professor Watson despite having to teach virtually. He's a great professor!

--I think that the assignments are really difficult for beginner's level and the fact that the course is scheduled every day made it hard to revise for the lesson before coming to the class.

--Being on Zoom was challenging but I think he made the most of it
